

"It's incumbent upon all of us to leave a legacy for the future, and I can think of no better way to do so than to put JA in my estate plans. Teaching our youth about the American Free Enterprise system is critical to the ongoing success of our community and our nation. Preparing them to be engaged members of our business community and society in general is what JA is all about."

Giving Children the Ability to Succeed

The Junior Achievement Legacy Society provides a meaningful way to ensure area children have access to vital education which supports their achievement and economic success. JA Legacy Society members invest in the success of local youth by including Junior Achievement in their estate plans. Through your visionary planned gift to JA, you guarantee that students in generations to come have the opportunity to explore and embrace the free enterprise system. You are helping today's students achieve a better life for themselves, their families, and our community.

Your Membership Makes a Difference

Through your visionary JA Legacy Society gift, you are creating a legacy of opportunity for the future of our community. You are creating a future in which thousands of children are inspired and equipped to make wise financial decisions, value free enterprise and become successful economic citizens.

A planned gift, such as a bequest in your will, a trust, a gift of life insurance or other assets, has many benefits. In some cases, it is as easy as writing "Junior Achievement, Inc." as the beneficiary. Of course, there may be tax advantages or the ability to increase your income and save assets for the benefit of your family.

JA welcomes the opportunity to work with you or your advisors as you plan your estate. Each gift received will demonstrate true passion and commitment to our free enterprise system.

"I realized I could do the things I always wanted to do. I no longer felt like someone who was dragging themselves through their education."
